2024 Year in Review

2024 was a busy and productive year for GRRR, continuing in the path of the last few years. Once again, our staff, volunteers, members, and donors have made it possible to do what often seems like the impossible.

With nearly 300 Golden Retrievers and mixes for the year, GRRR continued to meet the individual needs of each and every dog. They may have been relinquished by a loving family who just couldn't continue to care for them. Or they may have started out as a stray and come to us from a shelter that knew GRRR could provide the help they needed to get ready for a permanent adoption.

GRRR has brought other dogs in from Commercial Breeders (42 in 2024). Some of these are ready for their forever homes, but many others need a lengthy stay at GRRR where staff and volunteers can work with them, teaching them how to be "real dogs", without fear of their new surroundings.

Our FAST (Fearful And Shy dog Team) is trained to understand their traumas and techniques to help overcome their fears. Hand-feeding a treat, putting on a leash, or crossing a threshold into a house are huge steps for dogs who may have lived in cages their whole lives, with breeding as their only experience.

Obviously, this all costs money. Every dog is groomed and receives a physical exam and vaccines or other treatment our vet recommends. Their stay with us depends on whether there is a need for physical rehab or behavioral training. Their treatment and length of stay depends on need, not on cash flow. We make it happen.

Our first Gala at our new location netted $160,000 and will be held again June 14, 2025 at the same Arvada Social Capitol. Colorado Gives Day brought in about $175,000, including donations sent directly to GRRR.

We continued our work on events, memberships, major donor gifts, grants, and estate legacy bequests. Diversifying fundraising, rather than depending on a single donor, has assured our sustainability, in good times and in bad. And participation in community events like Golden Retrievers in Golden, featuring thousands of our favorite pups hanging out on their namesake main street, assures lots of love and laughs.

And, like last year, we continued to work on our rezoning efforts with Jefferson County in order to improve our facility and the work we do for these dogs. We feel like we're finally making progress, and hope to have tangible results to talk about at this time next year.

Thank you to all who love GRRR and our Golden Retrievers. We couldn't do it without you!
